

THANKSGIVING DAY.

The day of feasting and drawing nigh,
And a score of turkeys soon must die,
And stuff it with dressing sweet and fat,
And stuff it with dressing sweet and fat,
With fruits and berries, sauces make,
And add preserves and pie and cake.
Ask friends and kindred all to come
And spend the day giving at your home.
Let not the cares of life distress
But fill each glass with happiness,
Revive the joys of youthful days,
And for the blisings offer praise.

MYERS-ROSSE.

A Wedding Which Will Take Place This Evening at the Residence of the Bride.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Florence Myers daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Myers and Mr. Samuel Allen Rose will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the family residence of the bride corner of Second and Quincy streets.

Miss Myers is a young lady of many admirable traits of character, accomplished and in every way fitted to make a good wife; Mr. Rose is the very popular and efficient deputy recorder and both have hosts of friends throughout the city.

The ceremony will be performed in the parlor and the bride couple will take their places directly in front of a pyramid of tea and marchal neil roses, which were sent from Texas by Mayor Stevens for the occasion. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. S. Myers, pastor of the Christian church, of which the bride is a member, in the presence of about forty guests—relatives and intimate friends.

There will be no attendants. The bride will wear a cream white henrietta cloth gown with the bodice cut V at the throat and filled with duchesse point lace, cream undressed kid gloves and loose bouquet of bride's roses.

After the ceremony an elegant supper of meats, salads, rolls, ices, cakes, fruits and coffee will be served from a table decorated with roses and chrysanthemums, and under the direction of Mrs. Spencer, assisted by Mrs. E. W. Stevens and Mrs. Frank Rose.

In addition to the one to be worn at the wedding the bride's trousseau contains many beautiful gowns, among them a swallow gray broadcloth trimmed with chiffon, a black silk richly jetted, a tea gown of red henrietta combined with black velvet and several suitable for the street.

The newly wedded pair will forego the usual wedding tour and go at once to housekeeping in their beautifully fitted and furnished home No. 230 Prospect street.

Among the numerous beautiful and costly presents—almost the entire house being filled with them—may be mentioned elegant bed room suit of furniture, Mayor and Mrs. E. W. Stevens; parlor table, Mrs. J. H. Pilkington; china wash stand set, Messrs. J. H. Pilkington and J. T. Montgomery; elegant sideboard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rose; silverware, chairs, pictures, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose will be at home after the 25th instant, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The BAZOO joins with their many friends in wishing them a life as bright with joy and happiness as was the sun's golden rays to-day.

DIED AT GREEN RIDGE.

Yesterday's Clinton Democrat says that Rev. J. M. Ramsey of Clinton, teacher of Garland school, received a telegram from Green Ridge, Pettis county, this (Monday) morning announcing the death of his brother, Albert Ramsey, which occurred at 11 o'clock Sunday night at his father's home, six miles from that place. The telegram came addressed to John Ramsey, when the M. K. & T. night operator sent it to John Ramsey, the drayman. It did not refer to any relative of his and was returned. The operator gave it to Pryor Shelby, the colored hackman, who handed it to Rev. J. M. Ramsey just as he was boarding the K. C. O. & S., for his school at Garland. Rev. Ramsey said he was unprepared for the sad and sudden announcement. He was at his father's home yesterday, returning to Clinton on the night train. He left his brother in his apparent usual health, and he walked with him to the gate on his departure. He was in his seventeenth year, born and reared in the neighborhood where died. He had always been an invalid, but able to be up and about the house. It was impossible for him to attend the funeral, as no train went in that direction until 4:12 p. m.

LIVELY TIMES AT NEVADA.

Judge Stratton on the Citizens' Bank Failure and the Hutton Case.

Circuit court convened at Nevada yesterday with the largest docket in the history of the county. Judge D. P. Stratton, in his charge to the grand jury, called especial attention to the Citizens' Bank failure, and read the statute regarding cases wherein bank officials receive money on deposit knowing at the time that their bank is insolvent. He urged upon the jury to investigate all the evidence fully, and if there was a belief in their minds that O. K. Caldwell, cashier, or William Christian, president of the Citizens' Bank, or H. W. Linn or W. H. Robinson, directors, received money on deposit when they knew the bank was in a failing condition, then true bills should be found against them. The judge also called attention in the celebrated Deffenbaugh murder case, in which Thomas S. Hutton of this city is concerned, defining the two degrees of murder and the several degrees of manslaughter. The entire county is much worked up over both the cases, the preponderance of sentiment favoring the indictment of the Citizens' bank officials, but acquitting Hutton.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

COMPLIMENTING JACOBS.

The following editorial in yesterday's Hannibal Journal refers to a former secretary of the Sedalia Y. M. C. A.

"Hannibal sustains a very great loss by the departure of Rev. F. H. Jacobs, who has been the local secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city for the past two years, to other fields of labor. Amirably adapted to the work, and being an earnest, zealous Christian gentleman, he soon secured the confidence of the young men of the city, and the movement was a success from the start. Day and night he labored in the interest of the organization he represented, and the good accomplished is apparent to all. Hannibal reluctantly releases its claim upon him, but he carries to his new field the earnest good wishes of a multitude of friends in this city."

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their popularity purely on their merits. Mertz & Hale, Druggists.

THE SECOND CROP.

Yesterday the BAZOO was shown a strange freak of nature in the shape of some cherries which were of the second yield this season. They grew on the place owned by Michael McNutt, at Kemp postoffice, north of Sedalia. Mr. McNutt says that soon after the first regular fruit had been picked and the old leaves had fallen off, new buds and leaves made their appearance, the result being a tolerably well developed crop of cherries, some of which had turned red.

CAPTURED AT LAST.

Sheriff Ellis R. Smith left yesterday evening for Springfield, Mo., to take in custody a prisoner who has been a fugitive from justice three years. In December, 1888, William Richards stole a horse from a farmer who resided in the vicinity of Smith-ton. The stolen animal was an estray, and had been posted as such. Richards found the horse and ran it off to an adjoining county and sold it. Finding that his crime was known, he fled the country and has since succeeded in evading the posers of officers which were sent out at different times to capture him. Several days ago Sheriff Smith located his man in the vicinity of Springfield, Mo., and yesterday Richards was arrested.

NEEDS OF THE NEGRO.

Bishop Tuttle of Missouri Tells of the Wants of the Colored Race.

The Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, bishop of Missouri, spoke in Chicago last Sunday. His remarks were mainly an explanation of the work being done by the Protestant Episcopal church among the negroes of the south. Bishop Tuttle has been connected with the Missouri diocese for five years and during that time has given much attention to the education of the negro.

He said that the negroes of the United States numbered about eight millions and that there were about one million children to be educated. The enslaving of the colored people by the early settlers was dwelt upon, and the listeners were informed that they owed it to themselves to make reparation so far as they could for the acts of their ancestors. New England as well as those of the middle and southern states had engaged in the slave traffic.

"One thing must be borne in mind," said the speaker; "it is not a theory that confronts us, but a fact. The two races must be separated if any good is to be accomplished. Different schools must be provided. The present condition over all the south is deplorable. The young colored men are concealed and inflated with the first draughts of freedom. The young women can't cook and are disinclined to work. It will take time to bring them up to a higher sphere, to get homes started on a higher plane among different environments."

W. P. JACKSON DEAD.

Ex-Mayor Jackson expired at 4:30 a. m., Nov. 19, 1891, aged sixty-three years. He was born in Pike county, Mo., in 1828, and not in Kentucky, as stated in these columns a few days ago.

He leaves a widow, one daughter and seven sons to mourn his demise. His devoted wife and all the children were at his bedside at the time of his death.

In the death of Bill Jackson, one of the landmarks of this county passes away. He was a marvelous man in his way and one whose memory will last a long time. He possessed a rough exterior, but a warm, generous nature. He was a man of strong likes and dislikes. He was ever steadfast to his friends, to the death, if necessary, and his enemies, they could do nothing that would ever please him, while on the other hand, he could see nothing that his friends did wrong.

Such was his character. He had faults, but they were in a great measure obliterated or overbalanced by his good qualities. May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, deal with the dead as His all mercy dictates and be as a guide and comfort to the living—the posterity of the brave one who now has been consigned to earth is as follows: Georgia now Mrs. Jones and residing in Little Rock, Ark., Walter S., William E., James C., Charles W., Frank L., John C. and Bartlett S.

The funeral will take place at the family residence corner of Fifteenth and Harrison avenue to-morrow at 1 o'clock p. m., Rev. Albert Jump of the Montgomery Methodist church officiating. Among the pall bearers will be Col. Richard Ritter, R. W. Barnett, John R. Clopton, and Col. T. P. Hoy.

FAVOR AN EXTRA SESSION.

William Marshall a prominent citizen of Howard county, was in Sedalia last evening on his return home from Jefferson City, where he had been in consultation with a number of other democrats as to the proposed extra session. Mr. Marshall says that the many prominent democrats with whom he has recently talked upon the subject are heartily in favor of Governor Francis calling an extra session of the legislature.

OFFICIAL FOOD TESTS.

The United States and Canadian Governments Analyze the Baking Powders.

Comparative Strength and Purity of the Different Brands Officially Determined.

Prof. Haines, Consulting Chemist of the Chicago Board of Health, Gives His Opinion.

The public is always responsive to suggestions about the food it eats. Great interest has been taken in the investigations made by the United States and Canadian governments and by the different boards of health to show the purity or impurity of milk, baking powders, spices, and other articles of daily use in the culinary department of our households.

Just now the subject of baking powder is claiming public attention. We all desire pure and wholesome bread and this cannot be had with the use of impure or poisonous baking powder. There can be no longer any question that all the cheaper lower grades of baking powders contain either alum, lime or phosphoric acid.

The official analyses by the United States and Canadian governments have therefore been studied with interest and have pretty clearly established the facts upon this subject. The United States government report gives the names of eighteen well known powders, some of them advertised as pure cream of tartar baking powders, that contain alum.

The report shows that the Royal baking powder was found the highest in leavening strength, evolving 160.6 cubic inches of gas per single ounce of powder. There were eight other brands of cream of tartar powders tested and their average strength was 111.5 cubic inches of gas per ounce of powder.

The Canadian government investigations were of a still larger number of powders. The Royal baking powder was here also shown the purest and highest in strength, containing 129.32 inches of leavening gas per ounce of powder. Nine other cream of tartar powders were tested, their average strength being reported to be 89 cubic inches of gas per ounce.

These figures are very instructive to the practical house-keeper. They indicate that the Royal baking powder goes more than 33 per cent. further in use than others, or is one-third more economical. Still more important than this, however, they prove this popular article has been brought to the highest degree of purity—for its superlative purity is superior in strength is due—and consequently that by its use we may be insured the purest and most wholesome food.

The powders of lower strength are found to leave large amounts of inert matters in the food. This fact is emphasized by the report of the Ohio State Food Commissioner, who, while finding the Royal practically pure, found no other powder to contain less than 10 per cent. of inert or foreign matters.

The public interest in this question has likewise caused to be made investigations by our local authorities. Prof. W. S. Haines, of Rush Medical College, consulting chemist of the Chicago Board of Health, has found results similar to those reported by the national and Canadian authorities. Dr. Haines says:

RUSH MEDICAL COLLEGE, CHICAGO, ILL.

I have recently obtained samples of the chief baking powders in the market, and have subjected them to careful chemical examination to determine their purity, wholesomeness and leavening power. As the result of my tests, I find the Royal baking powder superior to all the others in every respect. It is entirely free from all adulterations and unwholesome impurities, and in baking it gives off a greater power of leavening gas than any other powder. It is, therefore, not only the purest, but also the strongest powder with which I am acquainted.

WALTER S. HAINES, M. D., Consulting Chemist, Chicago Board of Health.

The statistics show that there is used in the manufacture of the Royal baking powder more than half of all the cream of tartar consumed in the United States for all purposes. The wonderful sale thus indicated for the Royal baking powder—greater than that of all other baking powders combined—is perhaps even a higher evidence than that already quoted of the superiority of this article, and of its indispensableness to modern cookery.

THOSE IN THE TOILS.

Since Sheriff Smith and Prosecuting Attorney Longan went into office, in Pettis county—just about three years ago—31 persons have been sent to the penitentiary, 8 to the reform school and 1 man hung.

TRAIN ROBBERY FRUSTRATED.

News from McAlester, I. T., states that early yesterday morning an attempt to rob the Missouri, Kansas & Texas southbound train at South Canadian was frustrated by the officials of the railway company.

A telegram was sent to Muskogee notifying the officers that the Dalton gang was seen in the vicinity of South Canadian hidden in the river bottom, and an extra was run ahead of the regular and guards placed in postal and express cars.

It is believed that one or two of the gang got on the train at Muskogee and signaled the robbers to not attempt to make an attack, as the train was guarded.

Officers have been put on the trail of the robbers, but with little hopes of capturing the bandits, as the river bottom is very dense and difficult to get through.

THEIR RETURN.

The M. K. & T. Officials Arrive—Selection of J. C. Thompson, Assistant Treasurer for Missouri.

The party of M. K. & T. officials, headed by Capt. H. C. Cross, who went south ten days ago, returned on a special at 11:20 this morning and left at 12:40 p. m. for the east. The party had intended to make a stay of twelve hours or so in Sedalia on their return, but as business of importance demanded the attention of some members of the party, it was deemed expedient to make any stay here.

A BAZOO reporter boarded the special car and found Mr. Rouse, Capt. Cross, Colonel J. Waldo, Mr. Stearns and others. From Mr. Stearns it was learned that the party had had a delightful trip and they were received by the people everywhere very cordially and had been shown much attention everywhere.

"We found the road and its equipment in excellent shape," said Mr. Sterne, "and its physical condition and money making power. All its owners could expect or ask. We found the people all ready to extend the road any help or any business they had to give and I see nothing in the way of its successful operation," he continued in an enthusiastic manner.

Captain Cross seemed very much elated at the future prospects of the property and thinks that at no time within the history of the road has the outlook been as good as at present.

The directory, while absent, elected J. C. Thompson, cashier of the First National bank of Sedalia, assistant treasurer for Missouri, which will not be promulgated until they reach New York, and his preferment will not take effect until December 1, 1891.

The BAZOO extends to the gentlemen, who comprise the Directory and Executive Board, a cordial invitation to come again and view Sedalia and the marvelous resources of the west and south—the country through which the great highway they control extends.

Miss Hicks is reputed to be a charming young lady, and will be warmly welcomed in Sedalia, to which place, immediately after the marriage, the bridal couple will return.

Dr. R. L. St. John, of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes special pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. BITTEN BY A MAD COW.

Two Pettis County Men who are Likely to Have Hydrophobia.

W. H. Mason and P. K. Schnable, both of Ionia City, Pettis county, went to Nevada, Mo., Sunday morning to have the mad-stones at Miller's drug store applied for the bite of a mad steer.

Last Tuesday the animal was taken sick with what the above named gentlemen supposed to have been blind-staggers, and they proceeded to administer antidotes. Their hands were chapped and cracked from husking corn and in pulling out the steer's tongue their hands were covered with sloughs and cut by the animal's teeth.

They paid no attention, however, to the fact that their hands were hurt, but in a few days each one began to feel queer sensation, which they described as resembling drunkenness and which alarmed them.

On last Saturday they offered the steer water and it threw it into violent fits, and it continued to have them until the men left home.

The stones adhered to the sores from nine o'clock in the afternoon, and they left very well satisfied that a cure had been effected.

DEATH OF MRS. MIDDLETON.

Mrs. Mary E. Middleton, wife of Dr. K. D. Middleton, died early this morning at the family residence, East Thirteenth street, after an illness and great suffering lasting fourteen months. Deceased was born in Highland county, Ohio, in 1826, and removed with her husband to Sedalia in 1865. Mrs. Middleton was a true christian woman and had long been a member of the Methodist church. Besides her bereaved husband she leaves three children: Mrs. P. C. Hughes, of Kingsfisher, Oklahoma; Mrs. Maggie Wyatt, of Norwalk, Ohio; and Edward Middleton. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from the family residence, the services to be conducted by the Rev. Dr. R. D. Black, pastor of the M. E. church.

SHIPPED 18,000 BARRELS.

Hon. C. C. Bell, the Boonville "apple king," passed through Sedalia this morning, on his way home from Cass county. Mr. Bell has closed up several of his shipping depots in the central part of the state, and the apple shipping season is about over. Last year he shipped 20,000 barrels of apples. This year his shipments will reach about 19,000 barrels.

ANOTHER CHARGE.

Deputy U. S. Marshal John Oechsli, was in Sedalia yesterday afternoon on his return from the state capital, where he had been to re-arrest a convict named John W. O'Connor, who had just completed a term of three years for larceny. Five years ago O'Connor was engaged in an extensive postoffice robbery in Minneapolis and the authorities in Minnesota were only waiting for Missouri to get through with him in order to have him returned to that state.

CORN IS TOO HIGH.

Mr. Salmon, a well known and extensive stock dealer from Pleasant Green, was in the city this morning. He says that he, in common with many other hog and cattle traders, will not feed much stock this winter, owing to the high price of corn, it being now $2 per barrel. Mr. Salmon said that only yesterday nine carloads of cattle were shipped to Chicago from Pleasant Green.

HE BOUGHT CLEVELAND.

Mr. Louis Bolton, who proposes to establish a training and breeding stable in Sedalia, returned this morning from Texas county, where he purchased the magnificent saddle stallion, "Cleveland" whose pedigree is second to none in the land. Such an animal as this is quite an addition to the stock interests of Pettis county.
